4. Signature Card Authorization

The payment of funds on the conditions set forth below is authorized by the shareholder's signature(s) appearing below. The registration of this checking account will be the same as the shareholder account registration. Each signatory guarantees the genuineness of the other's signature.

The bank is authorized by the person(s) signing this card ("depositor(s)") to honor any checks for not less than $500 (or such other minimum or maximum amounts as may from time to time be established by the bank upon prior written notice to depositors) presented against this checking account and is directed to forward copies of each check to the fund or its transfer agent as authority to reimburse the bank by redeeming a sufficient number of shares in the depositor's shareholder account with the fund. Deposits in this account may be made only from the proceeds of the redemption of fund shares.

Depositors will be subject to the bank's rules and regulations governing such checking accounts, including the right of the bank not to honor checks in the amounts exceeding the value of the depositor's shareholder account with the fund at the time the check is presented for payment.

The bank reserves the right to modify or terminate this agreement at any time upon notification mailed to the address of record for the shareholder account.

In signing this application, I signify my agreement to be subject to the rules and regulations of the eligible fund's custodian bank ("the bank") pertaining thereto and as amended from time to time. Signature authentication will be required. A check book will be issued within 30 days upon the establishment and initial funding of the account. If the account is not funded within 30 days, the check writing privilege will be removed. If the account is funded more than 30 days after it has been established, it will be your responsibility to notify us in writing that you'd like to add the checkwriting privilege to your account.
