A multiple IRA Trust is one in which the IRA owner designates different beneficiaries in different funds within the same IRA type. If you maintain multiple MFS IRA Trusts, provide the trust number for which this beneficiary designation applies. If you are unsure if you have a multiple trust, check for a trust number in the account registration shown on your account statement. If there is a trust number, then you have multiple IRA trusts. A separate form must be completed for each IRA trust, and the trust number for each separate account must be indicated. If you have multiple IRA trusts and you do not indicate the trust number, we will not be able to update your beneficiary designation.

This designation will cancel any previous designation you have made for the IRA indicated above.

Please complete the fields below to designate your beneficiaries. If you do not name beneficiaries, the beneficiary designation default will be applied to your account. For the MFS SIMPLE IRA, the beneficiary designation default is the individual's estate as stated in the Form 5305-S SIMPLE Individual Retirement Trust Account.
